In a disciplinary case on the allegations of irregularities and violation of procedural codes in conduct of auction of properties of the defaulter Sri K. Sarath, the then Divisional Cooperative Officer, Nellore & Deputy Registrar(Retired), Nellore and Sri D. Rajeswara Rao, the then SDLCO, Nellore.

2. Both the Charged Officers have submitted their written statements of defence denying the charges framed against them. Since the written statements of defence were not satisfied, Government, in the reference 7th read above, appointed Sri S. Subba Rao, District Cooperative Officer, Ananthapur as Inquiring Authority to conduct regular inquiry into the charges framed against both the Charged Officers.

P.T.O.

5. Government, after careful examination of the matter, have observed that there is no loss to the PACS as auction was held but with some delay. There is a procedural lapse and no intent of defrauding.
